

Case Studies

Last Updated Thursday, 07 May 2009

Practical Control have undertaken a staggering 150 varied projects in product and system design incorporating electrical, electronic and embedded software design. This does not occur without being able to understand the needs of and work with both entrepreneurs and large well known national / international companies.

When appropriate a brochure of case studies of design projects is available, and client references can be provided.

To discuss further please contact:-

E: sales@practicalcontrol.com

T: 0114 2561888